

Summer Shorts – Ai Digital Festival Submission Form

The 2008 Ai Summer Shorts Festival will take place at the beautiful Crest Theater in Westwood on Tuesday night, September 9th, 5-10PM.

The selection committee will consist of faculty. All decisions are final.

All projects are to be turned in at the Video Cage beginning Monday, July 14th and ending at 6:00 p.m. Friday August 9th. Late projects will not be accepted. Projects submitted without a signed mandatory release form will not be accepted.

To submit your project for consideration:

1. Fill out this form neatly and completely.
2. Sign the mandatory release form.
3. Submit project on (2) Mini-DV tapes.
4. Make sure tape is cued up at project start.
5. Clearly label tape! -Title, director's name, phone number

Name of Director: _____

Phone number: _____

Email: _____

Project Title: _____

Academic Department: _____

Running time: _____

Logline: _____

Check three (3) categories that project should be considered for award:

| DFVP Genre Awards: | DFVP Production Awards: | Animation / Audio Production Awards |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---|
| Best Documentary _____ | Best Art Direction _____ | Best Stop Motion _____ |
| Best Commercial _____ | Best Directing _____ | Best 2D Animation _____ |
| Best Music Video _____ | Best Cinematography _____ | Best 3D Animation _____ |
| Best Movie: Comedy _____ | Best Editing _____ | Best Experimental _____ |
| Best Movie: Drama _____ | Best Sound Design _____ | Best Character Design _____ |
| Best Television Segment _____ | Best Screenplay _____ | Best Background Design & Layout _____ |
| | | Best Title- Motion Graphics _____ |
| | | Best Visual FX _____ |
| | | Best Audio Design _____ |

